The books in Set 4 help to ease beginning readers through the transition to longer, more complex story books. There are multiple lines of text on the page as the stories begin to be more complex. The pictures are engaging, while offering moderate support of text. This set covers familiar family experiences such as losing a first tooth. Reading a traditional tale from the point of view of Baby Bear appeals to the interests of young children. Max returns in this set with his comical dog, Mutt.
